TWO GREAT ATTRACTIONS, ONE STOP!

NOVEMBER 2011
HERE'S A RE-CAP OF THIS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

Summer student, Amanda Zan, is right in fashion for Callander's Tea Party!

Visitors enjoyed a number of lectures on fly fishing, boating, during this summer's "A Lure" exhibit with Arlie Hoffman.

1936 Olympic hopeful, Joe Wilcox, 5th from right, with his bike racing buddies. Unfortunately, Joe didn't make it to the finals, but never lost his passion for the sport.

A Callander Bay sunset with the Chief Comanda making its way from the docks.

The museum set up a fire department display for the firefighter's Pancake Breakfast. The event was a big success with the firefighters. They simulated alarms which thrilled the kids.

Canada Day celebrations: Our lovely Eric Mason shows off her collage of school days through the years. We were lucky to have her beside our display during the festivities.
